Raising the Standard for Nutrition and Wellness.™

As a valued partner, VitaLife Fitness is proud to have Douglas Labs as our manufacturer of choice for VitaFit.Me and 15 other key nutritional products. VitaLife Fitness has the utmost confidence in the Douglas Labs products because their commitment to excellence and superior service has ensured our ongoing confidence. Douglas Laboratories has a history that explains their success.

Founded in 1955, Douglas Laboratories promised to provide the highest quality nutritional supplements available with the highest level of personal service—anywhere. And with that promise began a legacy of leadership—and a never-ending quest to exceed customers expectations to Raise the Standard for Nutrition and Wellness.

Today that legacy lives on as Douglas Laboratories is a part of the Atrium Biotechnologies group of companies. Atrium Biotechnologies is an international company and global leader in the development, manufacturing, and marketing of dietary supplements, specialty fine chemicals, and active cosmetic ingredients. To learn more about Atrium Biotechnologies visit their website at www.atrium-bio.com.

Douglas Laboratories is supported by more than 300 employees all dedicated to keeping the promise. Raising the Standard is more than a slogan—it's a promise. As they enter their second half-century, Douglas Laboratories will continue to keep their promise to Raise the Standard with a custom approach to nutrition and wellness. With custom formulations that cannot be found anywhere else, Douglas Labs offers the industry's largest and most innovative product line. And they back up their promise with the kind of stringent criteria many other companies overlook.
